

This Weeks 'What's happening'

Thank you to all our parents who have worked closely with us to settle their children into their new classes and starting nursery.

A big thankyou to our existing children too who have been such positive role models for routines. Older children have been helping younger children with various tasks such as fastening their coats.

Monday 20th
January

The sign of the week is:

Tuesday 21st
January

Have you seen our new display all about the story book "Stick Man"

Why not have a look on your way to nursery.....
You will find this along the corridor outside orange room.

Wednesday
22nd January

As the weather is always changing-please don't forget to bring your child's coat & wellies to nursery.

Reminder

Please could we remind parents/carers to return the library bags if you have borrowed them as they have all disappeared from the corridor.

Thursday 23rd

BD Bus Trips -

These are free trips about the Bradford district, hosted by local experts, thinking about what we want the future to look like. They all start and end in Bradford city centre, and visit undiscovered gems along the public bus routes. Go on the link below to find a list of the dates the trips are taking place.
